

January 2021

“These so-called bleak times are necessary to go through in order to get to a much, much better place.” David Lynch

In this year's calendar we continue our inclusion theme but cannot disregard the immense impact the coronavirus has had right across the entire World. Coronavirus does not discriminate; anyone can get the virus. During this challenging time, people are coming together and are supporting one another. We are showing that, even in some of the most difficult and tough times, we can all choose to be kind. Helping each other has been shown to be good for our own mental health, helping to reduce stress and improving overall wellbeing.

“Covid-19 offers us a great opportunity for individual and collective recession. It is a time to go back to the drawing board and rewrite the next phase of our existence. The upcoming generation has to read about how we fought this pandemic with or without vaccines in order to overcome similar situations during their times.” Olawale Danie

April 2021

"The CEO is of no more importance than somebody cleaning the floors or that takes a bucket and mops the floors. I think that this is a time as a reset where we really have to re-evaluate how we treat workers, how people are paid, how can we get them into a role where they receive an equity as part of their compensation... they have something that appreciates. All these things I think are important as we go through this reset in business." Mark Cuban – Entrepreneur and owner of Dallas Mavericks
